

Five Make All-Pioneer From Torrance Schools

Five players from South and Torrance high schools made all-Pioneer League it was announced yesterday by a spokesman for the league, three from the Tartar squad and two from the Spartans.

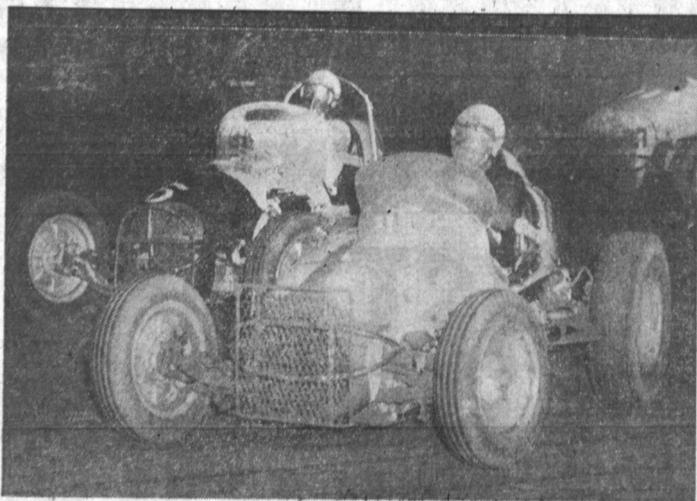

Bob Wehrhan, South's pile driving fullback, and Roger Smith, Spartan left end, were the two selected by league members. From the Tartar griders the mentors who comprise the board voted Joe Montgomery, Stan Gonta, and Phil Nichol on the first team All-Pioneer League.

Torrance High was left out of the second team, however, South captured four berths, Mike Czarke, Darrell Higgins, Joe Austin and Bill Hargrove were appointed. Cliff Roy, South High end received honorable mention. The complete roster of first and second team All-Pioneer League will be published in this newspaper Sunday.

New 40 Lane Bowling Center Merger Announced

The Del Amo Recreation Center, headed by Jack Cogan and Jack Howard, announced today an agreement between themselves and Bob, Jerry and Leonard Homel, for the operation and management of their new Gable House Bowling Center.

The new bowling palace will be located at the intersection of Sepulveda and Hawthorne Bvds. Completion of the Gable House is estimated shortly after the first of the year. The bowling recreation spot will contain forty lanes. The Gable House will also feature a unique mezzanine which will overlook the bowling lanes. The mezzanine will include a cocktail lounge, restaurant, series of meeting rooms and dancing facilities. Also included is a coffee shop, modern and completely equipped children's day room.

The Homel brothers are well known owners and operators of the Jefferson Bowl in Culver City and Jack Howard is associated with Harry Sternfeld in the operation of the now operating Palos Verdes Bowl.
